

DEBORAH YOST Agility Seminar

Saturday, February 20th

9am-12:30 Masters Class

Work with Deborah on the skills you need with your dog. She will help assess your specific challenges and create solutions.

12:30-3:30pm-Novice/Open

Deborah will help you grow your team with tips specific to the needs of you and your dog

Deborah is an agility competitor and instructor from Minnesota. She has had multiple canine partners and has represented the United States on several international agility teams (World Team, European Open, and FCIS).

She has also run in the finals at national and regional agility events held by AKC, UKI, and USDAA, and stood on the podium in numerous events. She has been teaching agility since 2009, and focuses on identifying and capitalizing on the strengths of each handler and dog. Her passion is to help teams acquire the skills they need to be the best they can be and achieve their goals.

Cost $95

Limited to 6 handler/dog teams per class. Class content is subject to change based on the needs of students. Rain will result in rescheduling per Deborah's availability.
